Funding For Mausoleum and Office Building Approved For Huse Memorial Cemetery in Fayette County

Morgantown, WV – June 30, 2006: State Director Robert M. Steptoe, III, today announced that Rural Development approved a Community Facilities Direct Loan of $1,588,000 for the Fayetteville Building Commission, Fayette County, WV.

Rural Development funds will be used to construct a mausoleum and an office/maintenance building at the Huse Memorial Cemetery located in Fayetteville, WV.

Steptoe remarked, "Community Facilities are essential to the quality of life in any rural community. Through its Community Facilities programs, West Virginia Rural Development is striving to ensure that such facilities are readily available to all rural West Virginians."

Rural Development serves as the lead Federal entity for rural development needs and administers program assistance through its rural housing programs, rural business programs, and rural utilities programs. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)

Further information on USDA Rural Development may be obtained by visiting USDA's web site at <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov>. In West Virginia, call 1-800-295-8228 to be put in touch with the appropriate personnel serving your county. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at 202.720.2600 (voice and TDD).
